

BTC Bids Former Company Secretary Farewell

BTC Board and Management has paid tribute to the Group's former Company Secretary, Mrs. Jennifer Dube for her invaluable service to the Corporation. She left the business in July this year.

"The BTC Group would like to thank Mrs Dube for her dedication, service and support of the business during her tenure. We will miss her guidance and advice especially now as the Corporation is going through the privatisation process," says Acting CEO Mr Keabetswe Segole.

Dube an admitted Attorney of the Courts of Botswana, has 12 years of legal experience, five of which were as a practicing attorney, a Conveyancer and Notary Public and seven as an in-house commercial lawyer.

She also boasts of a strong banking and telecommunications background, the latter gained from a local network operator in the commercial law, regulatory and compliance, company secretarial and corporate governance.

Mrs Dube, who holds an LLB Degree from the University of Botswana, provided commercial and company secretarial services and managed all aspects of legal risk for the Corporation. "We wish her all the best in her next endeavour," says Mr Segole
