

GM Broadband.

Grant R. Son, the new General Manager - Broadband is bringing 13 years in IT and telecommunications experience to the BTC Group.

Mr. Son previously worked for Coca Cola as Regional Supply Chain Manager in Limpopo, South Africa. He was responsible for the management of an annual turnover of R 800 million. At Enterprise Risk Management software company -now Metrix Software Solutions- he was employed as Marketing and Sales General Manager.

Mr. Son also worked for UUNET -currently Verizon Business -as an IT Support Consultant from January to December 1999. As an Account Manager, Jan –Dec 2001, he achieved a target of R4 million and R 6million as a Strategic Business Consultant in 2002.

He worked for United Telecomm (UK) from January 1996 to Dec 1998. Mr. Grant and also offered IT support consultancy to WanGlobal –Getronics. Mr. Grant, winner of the Wits Business School Business Planner award graduated from Computer College of South Africa. He has several qualifications in IT and holds an MBA completed through the University of Luton in the UK.